IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A",

Civil Action No.: 1:22-cv-04969

Judge Matthew F. Kennelly

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiff PINK FLOYD (1987) LIMITED ("PFL" or "Plaintiff") filed an Ex Parte Motion for Entry of a Temporary Restraining Order and Other Relief, including a Temporary Injunction, a Temporary Asset Restraint, a Temporary Transfer of the Domain Names identified on Schedule A, Expedited Discovery, and Service of Process by Email and/or Electronic Publication (the "Motion") against the fully interactive, e-commerce stores operating under the seller aliases identified in Schedule A to the Complaint and attached hereto (collectively, "Defendant Internet Stores") and using at least the domain names identified in Schedule A (the "Defendant Domain Names"). After reviewing the Motion and the accompanying record, this Court Grants PFL's Motion as follows.

This Court finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois. Specifically, PFL has provided a basis to conclude that Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more Defendant Internet Stores, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and have sold products using infringing and counterfeit versions of PFL's federally registered trademarks, which are covered by U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 2,194,702; 3,247,700; 4,232,255; 4,236,037; 5,521,572 and 6,514,317 (the "PINK FLOYD Trademarks") to residents of Illinois. In this case, PFL has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores operating at the Defendant Domain Names through which Illinois residents can and do purchase products using counterfeit versions of the PINK FLOYD Trademarks. See Docket No. [10-5], which includes screenshot evidence confirming that each Defendant internet store does stand ready, willing to ship its counterfeit goods to customers in Illinois bearing infringing and/or counterfeit versions of the PINK FLOYD Trademarks.

This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because PINK FLOYD has presented specific facts in the Declaration of Thomas Schlegel in support of the Motion and accompanying evidence clearly showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition. Specifically, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants could and likely would move any assets from accounts in financial institutions under this Court's jurisdiction to off-shore accounts. Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. using the PINK FLOYD Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies, or colorable imitations in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing,

- advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine PFL product or not authorized by PFL to be sold in connection with the PINK FLOYD Trademarks;
- b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine PFL product or any other product produced by PFL, that is not PFL's or not produced under the authorization, control, or supervision of PFL and approved by PFL for sale under the PINK FLOYD Trademarks;
 - c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of PFL, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with PFL; and
 - d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for PFL, nor authorized by PFL to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of PFL's trademarks, including the PINK FLOYD Trademarks, or any reproductions, counterfeit copies, or colorable imitations.
 - e. discontinue the use of the PINK FLOYD Trademarks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, on or in connection with all internet websites, domain names, or businesses owned and operated, or controlled by them, including the internet websites operating under the Defendant Domain Names; and
 - f. discontinue the use of the PINK FLOYD Trademarks, or any confusingly similar trademarks within domain name extensions, metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any webpage (including as the title of any webpage), from any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, and any other form of use of such terms which is visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches internet websites registered, owned, or operated by Defendants, including the internet websites operating under the Defendant Domain Names.

(“PayPal”) or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

 - b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Internet Stores and Defendant Domain Names and Defendants' financial accounts, including Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Internet Stores and Defendant Domain Names; and
 - c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).
8. Upon PFL's request, those with notice of this Order, including the Third Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 7, shall within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of such notice, disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the PINK FLOYD Trademarks.

 - b. restrain and enjoin any such accounts or funds from transferring or disposing of any money or other of Defendants' assets until further order by this Court.
10. Upon PFL's request, the domain name registrars and/or privacy protection services for the Defendant Domain Names are ordered to disclose to PFL the true identities of and contact information of the registrants of the Defendant Domain names.
11. Upon entry of this Order, Plaintiff shall provide a copy of the Order by e-mail to the registrars of record for the Defendant Domain Names. Upon receipt of the Order, the registrars of record for the Defendant Domain Names shall immediately lock the Defendant Domain Names; shall notify the registrants of record of the Order; and shall provide notice of the locking of the domain name to the registrants of record. After providing such notice to the registrars so the Defendant Domain Names may be locked, Plaintiff shall also provide notice and a copy of this order to the registrants for the Defendant Domain Names via email to the email addresses provided as part of the domain registration data for the Defendant Domain Names. If an email address was not provided as part of the domain registration data for the Defendant Domain Names, Plaintiff shall provide notice and a copy of this Order to the operator of the Defendant Domain Names via an onsite email address and/or online contact form provided on the Defendant Domain Names. Forty-eight (48) hours after emailing this Order to the registrars of record and the registrants, Plaintiff shall provide a copy of this Order to the registrars and registry for the Defendant Domain Names for the purposes described in Paragraph 12, below;

12. The domain name registrars for the Defendant Domain Names shall immediately assist in changing the registrars of record for the Defendant Domain names, to a holding account with a registrar of Plaintiff's choosing ("the New Registrar"). To the extent the registrars do not assist in changing the registrars of record for the domains under their respective control within one (1) business day of receipt of this Order, the top-level domain (TLD) registries, for the Defendant Domain Names, or their administrators, including backend registry operators or administrators, within five (5) business days of receipt of this Order, shall change, or assist in changing, the registrars of record for the Defendant Domain names to a holding account with the New Registrar. Upon the change of the registrar of record for the Defendant Domain Names, the New Registrar will maintain access to the Defendant Domain Names in trust for the Court during the pendency of this action, or until further order of the Court. Additionally, the New Registrar shall immediately institute a temporary 302 domain name redirection which will automatically redirect any visitor to the Defendant Domain Names to a Uniform Resource Locator ("URL") designated by PFL, whereon copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action are displayed. Alternatively, the New Registrar may update the Domain Name System ("DNS") data it maintains for the Defendant Domain Names, which link the domain names to the IP address where the associated website is hosted, to NS1.MEDIATEMPLE.NET and NS2.MEDIATEMPLE.NET, which will cause the domain name to resolve to the website where copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action shall be displayed. After the New Registrar has effected this change, the Defendant

Domain Names shall be placed on lock status by the New Registrar, preventing the modification or deletion of the domains by the New Registrar or Defendants.

13. This Order shall apply to the Defendant Domain Names, associated websites, and any other domain names and websites which are being used by Defendants for the purpose of counterfeiting the PINK FLOYD Trademarks at issue in this action and/or unfairly competing with Plaintiff.
14. PFL may provide notice of the proceedings in this case to Defendants, including notice of the preliminary injunction hearing, service of process pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(f)(3), and any future motions, by electronically publishing a link to the Complaint, this Order, and other relevant documents on a website and/or by sending an e-mail with a link to said website to the e-mail addresses identified in Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Thomas Schlegel and any e-mail addresses provided for Defendants by third parties. The Clerk of the Court is directed to issue a single original summons in the name of “iteeglobal.com and all other Defendants identified in the Complaint” that shall apply to all Defendants. The combination of providing notice via electronic publication and/or e-mail, along with any notice that Defendants receive from payment processors, shall constitute notice reasonably calculated under all circumstances to apprise Defendants of the pendency of the action and afford them the opportunity to present their objections.
15. PFL must provide notice to Defendants of any motion for preliminary injunction as required by Rule 65(a)(1).
16. Within seven (7) calendar days of entry of this Order, PFL shall deposit with the Court ten thousand dollars ($10,000), either cash or surety bond, as security, which amount has, in the absence of adversarial testing, been deemed adequate for the payment of such damages as any person may be entitled to recover as a result of a wrongful restraint hereunder.

17. Any Defendants that are subject to this Order may appear and move to dissolve or modify the Order as permitted by and in compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Northern District of Illinois Local Rules. Any third party impacted by this Order may move for appropriate relief.
18. This Temporary Restraining Order without notice is entered at 9:00 A.M. on this 15th day of September 2022 and shall remain in effect for fourteen (14) calendar days. Any motion to extend this Order must be filed by [DATE].
